

LETTERS

Ravenwood Persecuted

The House of Ravenwood, Church and Seminary of Wicca has from its inception suffered religious persecution ranging from teen-age vandalism to organized attacks by the Ku Klux Klan.

For the elected officials of Fulton County to be swayed by such religious bigotry and to aid in this harassment by refusing to grant the House of Ravenwood their deserved tax-exempt property status is deplorable to all American citizens who value the Freedom of Religion that this country was founded on.

JAMES MOORE